Weekly Warrants-Motion by Donna, 2nd by Evelyn to approve them. 5-0

- 1. Island Workforce Housing-housing-Sue Buxton and IWFH were in to talk about housing progress in Stonington. Hoping to partner with the town. Buying Tim Kinchla lot next to the town's 25% share with Asia's lot on the Cemetery Road. Discussed housing limits AMI, TM the missing middle is a problem, they can't get housing. Town still thinking on a housing committee to look at recent suggestions from the Housing meeting held upstairs with Camoin Associates and forming a Housing Task Force.
- 2. Town ordinances enforcement review/comments-George Graves in complaining about recent tickets for overnight parking, disagreed with our parking ordinance, TM said he argued so and aggressive with staff and her and had to call the cops. Travis said he felt the signage was adequate for how the ordinance is written currently. TM says she has no issues with looking it back over, but town officials have observed him and others in town parking lots exceeding the ordinance limits overnight. George says he wants to be friends. Board member said pay your ticket, only $25 each....
- 3. Harbor Committee recommendations-Evelyn gave a run down. Did not have a quorum.
